'Time Out' to get a WLA makeover!

Take 10 Academy students, a famous magazine brand, a sprinkle of publishing professionals, and see just how high the bar can be set!

WLA media hounds are currently busy designing an A2 poster to be published as a fanzine-styled booklet in Time Out magazine.

This will then be inserted into the year's biggest selling issue of Time Out – the Christmas double issue out December 19.

Students will work on everything from photo shoots, creating illustrations and mood boards, picture editing and researching. Finally they will get to design their own layouts for print.

From editorial brainstorming sessions and advertising pitches to design and layout, the students will have to learn fast on the job from professionals to produce a magazine that wows everyone who comes into contact with it.

Everyone at WLA is confident they're up to the task! Watch this space to see how they do!
